The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, May 23. 1705.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated May 19.

Madrid, April 29.

THE King and Queen continue at Buen-retiro, whence they will ſet out the 2d of next Month for Aranguez. The Duke of Medina Celi has been brought ſo low by an Indiſpoſition, that his Phyſitians deſpair'd of his Life. The 27th Inſtant, which was the 7th Day of his Illneſs, he had the Sacraments of the Church adminiſtered to him, and diſpos'd his Mind to receive the Stroke of Death with due Chriſtian Reſignation: The ſame Day the King ſent one of the Secretaries of his Chamber to viſit him, and to acquaint him that his Majeſty was very much concern'd for his being in ſo languiſhing a Condition. The Duke deſir'd that Secretary, to recommend the Dutcheſs his Wife to his Majeſty's Favour, as alſo the five Secretaries that had ſerv'd him in his Embaſſy to Rome and during the Time he was Viceroy of Naples: Whereupon his Majeſty, by the Advice of ſome of his Miniſters, made a Grant to the Dutcheſs of the Profits of the Preſidentſhip of the Council of the Indies; provided for the five Secretaries, and ſent back the ſaid Secretary to ſignify to the Duke what he had done. The following Night the Duke began to grow better, and his Illneſs is ſince ſo much leſſen'd, that he has now no Fever upon him and his Stomach is return'd to him, to the great Joy of the whole Court. Don Carlos de Borja, on whom the King has conferr'd the Dignity of Vicar-General of his Armies in Spiritual Affairs, has the Title of Biſhop in partibus given him by the Pope, to qualify him to perform the Epiſcopal Fonctions, and to appoint ſuch Eccleſiaſticks as he ſhall think fit to attend the Troops. Don Vidal Martin, Biſhop of Ceuta, who arriv'd at Court the 23d of this Month, is made Inquiſitor General, and was Yeſterday put into Poſſeſſion of that Dignity, in Conſideration of the Service he has done in Ceuta, by giving the Officers and Soldiers of the Garriſon all the Aſſiſtance depending on his Miniſtry, and animating them by his Example. The Marquis Rinocini, new Envoy extraordinary from the great Duke of Tuſcany, arriv'd in this City the 27th Inſtant; and the Marquis Pucci who has reſided ſome years at this Court with the ſame Caracter, is preparing to return home very ſhortly. The King has declar'd Don Thomas de los Cobos Marquis of Parga, Lieutenant General of his Armies, in Conſideration of his Services; and his Majeſty has conferr'd the Office of Fiſcal of the Council of Navarre, upon Don Juan Hernandez Caretero, who was formerly Rector of the Univerſity of Salamanca. Collonel Montenegro is arriv'd here from Eſtramadura, and has given the King an Account of the Condition of that Frontier. The Marſhal de Theſſe having chang'd the Siege of Gibraltar into a Blockade, and caus'd a Line to be made to keep the Enemy garriſon'd in that Place from making Excurſions, is gone, by Direction from Court, to viſit the Town of Cadix, and afterwards that of Badajox, whither ſome Detachments of the Troops that are in Caſtile are order'd to march, Intelligence being given that the Enemy are in Motion that Way.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 21.

Nimes, May 6. Our Preſidial continues to proceed with the greateſt Rigour againſt the Camiſars and their Adherents that have been taken into Cuſtody. The 4th of this Month, a Miller was broken alive on the Wheel here, and 5 other Perſons hang'd. There are many more in Priſon, who perhaps will undergo the like Fate; and ſuch Inhabitants of this Town or of the Neighbourhood as are in the leaſt ſuſpected are taken up continually. Several of thoſe who have been put to Death, have died denying their Guilt of what was laid to their Charge. The fam'd Cavalier, is not apprehended as has been reported; and is believ'd to be ſtill in Piemont: But ſtrict Search is made after 3 other Leaders of the Camiſars, who there is good Ground to believe are return'd into this Province. Mean time 'tis talk'd one Clangue, a Miniſter, and 5 others, offer to ſurrender themſelves, on certain Conditions. We have receiv'd Advice, that ſeveral Muleteers have been aſſaſſinated near Vigan, by 12 Men whereof 6 were mask'd; but 'tis not advis'd yet with any Certainty whether they were Camiſars or Robbers. The Duke of Berwick went Yeſterday to Beaucaire, to meet the Dutcheſs his Wife: who is come done the Rhone from Lions thither; and 'tis expected he will retur n hither to Day with her.

The laſt Amſterdam Gazette, in the Article from Paris of the 15th of May, gives the following remarkable Paragraph as a piece of News that had been made publick at the Court of France.

'Tis advis'd from the Empire, that the 'Accomo-

'Accomodation between the Malecontents of 'Hungary and the Imperial Court is ſtill 'very uncertain, eſpecially ſince the Confeſſor 'of the Emperor [Leopold, whoſe Deceaſe was not known at Paris till after the ſaid 15th of May.] uſes his beſt Endeavours to break the Negotiation to that Purpoſe; pretending that the 'Conditions, upon which the Engliſh and 'Dutch propoſe the ſaid Accomodation, are 'not only Injurious to the Emperor's Glory, 'but likewiſe very prejudicial to the Roman 'Catholick Religion, and of dangerous Con'cequence to the Conſcience of his Imperial Ma'jeſty, and to the Conſciences of his Miniſters.
